¹ Rules issued by the Services and General Administration Department, Government of Balochistan vide its Notification No. 17-237-79-SO-ARC/S&GAD, dated 26th June, 1979; published in the Balochistan Gazette (Extraordinary) No. 73, dated 10th July, 1979; and now repealed by the Balochistan Civil Servant (Appointment, Promotion and Transfer) Rules, 2009, Rule 23.

For the Balochistan Civil Servant (Appointment, Promotion and Transfer) Rules, 2009, See Balochistan Gazette (Extraordinary) No. 165, dated 27th October, 2009.

Explanation. Officiating service and service spent on deputation to a corresponding or a higher post may be allowed to count towards the period of probation.

(2) If the work or conduct of the holder of a post during the period of probation has, in the opinion of Appointing Authority, not been satisfactory the Appointing Authority may notwithstanding that the period of probation has not expired, dispense with his services, if he has been appointed by initial recruitment, and if he has been appointed otherwise revert him to his former post, or if there be no such post, dispense with his services.

(3) On completion of the period of probation of a holder of a post the appointing authority may, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (4) confirm him in his appointment or if his work or conduct has in the opinion of such authority, not been satisfactory;

- (a) in case he has been appointed by initial recruitment, dispense with his services;
or
- (b) in case he has been appointed otherwise revert him to his former post, and if there be no such post, dispense with his services; or
- (c) extend the period of probation by a period not exceeding two years in all, and during or on the expiry of such period pass such orders as it could have passed during or on the expiry of the initial probationary period.

Explanation-I. If no orders have been made by the day following the completion of the initial probationary period, the period of probation shall be deemed to have been extended.

Explanation-II. If no orders have been made by the day on which the maximum period of probation expires, the probationer shall be deemed to have been confirmed in his appointment from the date on which he was appointed to the post subject to provisions of sub-section (5) of section 7 of the Balochistan Civil Servants Act. 1974¹.

(4) No person shall be confirmed in the post unless he successfully completes such training and passes such departmental examinations as may be prescribed by Government from time to time.

(5) If a member of the Service whether appointed against a substantive vacancy or otherwise fails to complete successfully any training or pass any departmental examination prescribed under sub rules (4) within such period or in such number of attempts as may be prescribed by Government. The Appointing Authority may;

- (a) in case he has been appointed by initial recruitment, dispense with his service;
or
- (b) in case he has been appointed otherwise revert him to his former post, and if there be no such post, dispense with his services.

9. Seniority.— (1) The interse seniority of the members of the Service in various grades thereof shall be determined:—

- (a) in the case of persons appointed by initial recruitment, in accordance with the order of merit assigned by the Board: provided that persons selected for posts

in an earlier selection shall rank senior to the persons selected in a later selection; and

- (b) in the case of persons appointed otherwise, with reference to the dates or their continuous appointment therein; provided that if the dates of continuous appointment in the case of two or more persons is the same, the elder official, if not junior to the younger official or officials in the next below grade shall rank senior to the younger official or officials.

Explanation– I. If a junior official in a lower grade is promoted to a higher grade temporarily in the public interest, even though continuing later permanently in the higher grade, it would not adversely affect the interest of his seniors in the fixation of his seniority in the higher grade.

Explanation– II. If a junior official in a lower grade is promoted to a higher grade by superseding a senior official and subsequently that official is also promoted, to the same grade, the official promoted first, shall rank senior to the official promoted subsequently.

(2) The seniority in the various grades of the Service of the members thereof appointed by initial recruitment vis-à-vis those appointed otherwise shall be terminated with reference to the date of regular appointment to such vacancy;

Provided that if the dates of regular appointment of the member of the service appointed by initial recruitment and the member appointed otherwise are the same the member appointed otherwise shall rank senior to member appointed by initial recruitment.

10. Liability to Transfer and Serve.— Members of the service shall be liable to:—

- (a) transfer anywhere in Balochistan; and
(b) serve in any Department of Government or any local authority or statutory body set up or established by Government;

Provided that where a member of the Service is required to serve in a post outside his Service or cadre, his terms and conditions of service as to his pay shall not be less favorable than those to which he would have been entitled if he had not been so required to serve.

11. General Rules.— In all matters not expressly provided for in these rules, members of the service shall be governed by such rules as have been or may thereafter be prescribed by Government and made applicable to them.

12. Relaxation.— Any of these rules, for reasons to be recorded in writing, be relaxed in individual cases, if Government is satisfied that a strict application of the rules would cause undue hardship to the individual concerned.

13. Delegation.— Government may delegate all or any of its powers under these rules to any official subordinate to it.
